LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on the 7th September, 1966:—

BILL No. 67 of 1966

A Bill to provide for the separation of judicial and executive functions in the Union territories of Delhi and Himachal Pradesh.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventeenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Delhi and Himachal Pradesh Short title, (Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions) Act, 1966. extent and commencement.

5 (2) It extends to the Union territories of Delhi and Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force in a Union territory on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint:

Provided that different dates may be appointed for different areas in the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh and any reference to the commencement of this Act in relation to a Union territory or an area therein shall mean the date on which it comes into force in that Union territory or area.

2. In this Act, "Union territory" means the Union territory of Delhi or Himachal Pradesh.

3. For the purpose of separation of judicial and executive functions, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 shall, in its application to a Union territory, be amended in the manner and to the extent specified in the Schedule.

4. The provisions of this Act which amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 so as to alter the manner in which, the authority by which, or the law under or in accordance with which, any powers are exercisable, shall not render invalid any notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation duly made or issued or anything duly done before the commencement of this Act, and any such notification, order, commitment, attachment, bye-law, rule or regulation or thing may be revoked, varied or undone in the like manner to the like extent and in the like circumstances, as if it had been duly made, issued or done after the commencement of this Act by the competent authority and in accordance with the provisions then applicable to such case.

5. Where under any law the functions exercisable by a Magistrate relate to matters which involve the appreciation or sifting of evidence or the formulation of any decision which exposes any person to any punishment, or penalty, or detention in custody pending investigation, inquiry or trial or would have the effect of sending him for trial before any Court, such functions shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, be exercisable by a Judicial Magistrate; and where such functions relate to matters which are administrative or executive in nature, such as the grant of a licence, the suspension or cancellation of a licence, sanctioning a prosecution, or withdrawing from a prosecution, they shall, subject as aforesaid, be exercisable by an Executive Magistrate.

6. (1) Save as provided in this section, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect—

(a) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequence of anything done or suffered to be done before the commencement of this Act;

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred before such commencement;

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred or inflicted in respect of any act before such commencement;

5 (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment,

5 of 1898. and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act.

10 (2) All legal proceedings pending before a Magistrate or Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, if such Magistrate or Court ceases to have jurisdiction in respect of such proceedings under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act, stand on such commencement transferred to the Magistrate or Court having jurisdiction under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as amended by this Act and shall be heard and disposed of by such Magistrate or Court and such Magistrate or Court shall have all the powers and 15 jurisdiction in respect thereof as if they had been originally instituted before such Magistrate or in such Court, including the power of the succeeding Magistrate under section 350 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

20 7. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government, in consultation with the High Court, may by order do anything (including the specification of the appropriate Magistrate, whether Judicial or Executive, having jurisdiction under any law) not inconsistent with such provisions and for the furtherance of the purposes of this Act which appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

Power to remove difficulties.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill seeks to separate the judiciary from the executive in the matter of administration of criminal law in the Union territories of Delhi and Himachal Pradesh and has been brought forward in compliance with the directive principles of State policy embodied in article 50 of the Constitution. The object is sought to be achieved by amendment of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (vide clause 3 and the Schedule) by providing for the classification of the magistracy into Judicial Magistrates and Executive Magistrates and for the appointment of members of the Judicial Service as Judicial Magistrates with the approval of the High Court. The Bill seeks to make changes in the various provisions of the Code with a view to giving effect to this classification and contains the necessary transitional and saving provisions. The Bill also sets out the respective cases other than those specifically covered by the proposed amendments to the Code, in which functions shall be exercisable under any law by Judicial and Executive Magistrates. Power has also been taken for the removal of difficulties, if any, in giving effect to the provisions of the Bill after it becomes an Act.

The 19th July, 1966.

G. L. NANDA.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLE 117 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. F. 13/1/65-UTL, dated the 27th July, 1966 from Shri Jai Sukh Lal Hathi, Minister of State in the Ministry of Home Affairs to the Secretary, Lok Sabha].

The President having been informed of the subject matter of the Bill to provide for the separation of Judicial and Executive functions in the Union territories of Delhi and Hamachal Pradesh, recommends, under clause (3) of article 117 of the Constitution, the consideration of the said Bill in the Lok Sabha.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Section 12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as proposed to be modified by paragraph 5 of the Schedule to the Bill, read with clause 3 thereof, seeks to provide for appointment of Executive Magistrates and for conferment of powers of any class of a Judicial Magistrate on members of the judicial service of the Union territory of Delhi or Himachal Pradesh. The said paragraph of the Schedule also provides that during the first three years persons who are members of a civil service in the Union territory of Delhi or Himachal Pradesh or any State and are or have been exercising the powers of a Magistrate in such territory or State may be appointed as Judicial Magistrates.

Section 14 of the Code, as proposed to be modified by paragraph 7 of that Schedule, makes provision for appointment of Special Judicial Magistrates and Special Executive Magistrates.

The scheme of the Bill, in effect, involves the classification, at the initial stage, of the existing Magistrates in the two Union territories into Executive and Judicial Magistrates and no additional expenditure would be involved on this account. It is intended that the future strength of the judicial service in the two Union territories will be determined before the expiry of the transitional period of three years and this will be done after assessing the actual requirements in the light of the working of the scheme of separation for some time. As a result of this determination, some additional expenditure may be involved. Such expenditure may ultimately be of the order of Rs. 2 lakhs (non-recurring) and Rs. 12 lakhs per annum (recurring) in the case of Delhi and Rs. 1.50 lakhs (non-recurring) and Rs. 11 lakhs per annum (recurring) in the case of Himachal Pradesh. The expenditure in the case of Delhi will be met from the Consolidated Fund of India and that in the case of Himachal Pradesh from the Consolidated Fund of that Union territory. The Punjab Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions Act, 1964, is already in force in the whole of the State of Punjab except in the scheduled areas of Lahaul and Spiti and the transfer of certain areas of the existing Punjab to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh as a result of the contemplated reorganisation of that State would not involve any additional expenditure.
